

MISTY MOUNTAIN MEMBER BIO

Elliot Negrin – electric/acoustic guitars

Elliot has been working since the age of seventeen, in 1978, as an integral member of the Long Island band Mazarin. Elliot also worked for a multi-year run with Keith Zorros and renowned guitarist Paul Pesco. He then spent a number of years working with well-known producer Rob Freeman while touring and recording artists Jailbait. Elliot worked on guitar tracks for Tim Moore, a prodigious writer who had penned songs for Art Garfunkel, Cher, Richie Havens, The Bay City Rollers, Cliff Richard and many more. After turning down a touring gig with Meatloaf, Elliot pursued other avenues for a number of years. He believes he has now put together some of the best musicians on Long Island, that he has long admired, to form one of the most and talented bands around, Misty Mountain.

Ed Terry – lead vocals/harmonica

A deep dedication to the arts, he transcends the mainstream and echoes back to a time when blues hard rock was performed with conviction and feeling. Ed molded himself from the embers of Jimmy Barnes, David Coverdale and Paul Rogers. His raspy, soulful lead voice combines with a flair for anything from funk to rock. Aside from numerous movie and television appearances, Ed has recorded as a solo artist on Atlantic Records, MCA, Universal, Epic, Virgin and Interscope records. He has worked on recordings with Madonna, Whitney Houston, Aretha Franklin, Gregory Hynes, The Jets, Keith Richards, Talking Heads, Simply Red, Psychedelic Furs, Sheena Easton, Little Steven, Debbi Gibson, David Bowie, Rod Stewart, Julio Iglesias, Fleetwood Mac, David Lee Roth and many others. He has also penned songs with John Oates, James Ingram, Luie Luie, Denise Rich, Keith Diamond, Wilson Philips and others. Ed is thrilled to join the talented and tantalizing members of Misty Mountain.
